

To W. L. Garrison.

Cambridge

July 26. 1869

My dear Friend

41 Pray do not forget that the Woman's Rights Convention at Newburyport is to be held on Wednesday the 28th not on the 29th as you seemed to think the other day. I shall meet you there if I can get from under the University Press. But just now they are squeezing the breath almost out of me

Love to all at home

Yours most affectionately

Saml J. May

Thank dear Frank for his help in copying the Letter to Mr W.
